is going on at the field. The new take-off runway is finished, and the field was to be taken over completely by the Red Airforce on 1 December 1951. The runway is 2.5 kilometers long and 60 meters wide. These figures should be quite accurate [redacted] One block of 50X1-HUM dwellings is still inhabited by civilians, but these are to be evacuated soon. Approximately 25 - 26 buildings are to be put in order as barracks. An advance party is reported to have been at the field for some time, but there are no airmen.
